

Privacy Policy & Data Processing Agreement

In adherence to our commitment to safeguarding your privacy and ensuring the secure handling of your data, Triumph Group of Companies presents this Privacy Policy & Data Processing Agreement. This document outlines the procedures, responsibilities, and rights concerning the collection, processing, and protection of your personal information.

Information Collection and Usage

Triumph Group of Companies collects personal information from users through various means such as website interactions, service utilization, and direct communication. This information includes but is not limited to names, contact details, and usage data. The collected data is utilized for purposes including service provision, communication, and enhancing user experience. We are committed to ensuring that collected data is used only for legitimate business purposes and in compliance with applicable regulations.

Data Processing

Triumph Group of Companies processes personal data in accordance with relevant legal requirements and industry standards. We employ appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard data against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. Data processing activities are conducted with transparency, accountability, and respect for individual rights.

Data Disclosure and Sharing

We may disclose personal information to authorized third parties for purposes such as service delivery, regulatory compliance, and legal obligations. These third parties are contractually obligated to handle data securely and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Data Subject Rights

Individuals have rights regarding their personal data, including the right to access, rectify, and delete information, as well as the right to object to or restrict processing activities. Triumph Group of Companies is committed to facilitating the exercise of these rights and addressing data subject inquiries and requests promptly and effectively.

Data Security Measures

Triumph Group of Companies implements robust security measures to protect personal data from unauthorized access, misuse, or loss. These measures include encryption, access controls, and regular security assessments. We continuously monitor and enhance our security practices to mitigate risks and ensure data confidentiality, integrity, and availability.

Data Retention

Personal data is retained only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, unless a longer retention period is required by law or consented to by the data subject. Upon reaching the end of the retention period, data is securely disposed of or anonymized to prevent identification.

Policy Updates

Triumph Group of Companies reserves the right to update this Privacy Policy & Data Processing Agreement as needed to reflect changes in regulatory requirements, business practices, or technological advancements. Updated versions will be published on our website, and users will be notified of any material changes.
